

FINDING YOUR INTUITIVE CREATIVE VOICE THROUGH MIXED MEDIA.

You will be guided through a mixed media layering project which will incorporate painting, drawing and collage. The emphasis will be on freeing up your inner critical voice and finding ease and joy in process-oriented art.

MATERIALS

PLEASE NOTE: If you do not have all of the materials below, do NOT worry!

- 2 Large sheets of drawing paper (at least 11"x14")
- Any firm substrate to glue onto (at least 11"x14") Bristol board; illustration board; watercolor paper; wood panel; cardboard (prepare board with gesso if possible)
- Black india ink (if you do not have it, you can use diluted black acrylic paint)
- Brushes (various widths)
- Stick from the garden
- Acrylic paint assortment (including black & white)
- Water, rags/paper towels
- Palette paper
- Q-tips
- Magazine for tearing out
- Matte medium/glue for pasting
- Scissors
- Hairdryer to dry layers with
- Old credit card
- Fine sandpaper
- Any stencils you may have
- Sponge for stenciling